

(7) TITLE.:- BATTLE OF GLASGOW.

Picture.:- If you have different political views to the next fellow--

--at Glasgow during election time, as sure as fate you'll be mixed--

--up in a "shemozzle" like this ! XXXX Soot, ochre, pease-meal, and every other mess-making stuff they can gather is commandeered--

--as ammunition. XXXXX Individual 'scraps' are many and close. XXXX It looks as though this couple are settling political questions for evermore ! XXXX Look out ! XXXXX Ha ! United they fell, that time ! XXXX They're still friendly enemies, though ! XXXX

It's a good job the authorities banned eggs and cod's heads as ammunition this year - although it rather disappointed the warriors ! XXXX It used to be-- --a wonderful thing to "muss" the other fellow all up with real ancient eggs and--

--finish him off with a cod's head which left its position in life many moons ago ! XXXXX The funny thing about these battles is that everybody claims to have won - and if you don't agree you're in danger--

--of starting it all over again ! XXXXX Ammunition has given out, so they "call it a day".

AND SO, FOR THE PRESENT, I LEAVE YOU !
