TITLE.:- FRENCH PREMIER.

Picture.:- Grave issues are at stake as the great liner brings--

--to New York Monsieur Laval, Premier of France. XXXXXX
The party leave the ship for the --

--municipal reception boat, while the fortress at Governor's--

--Island thunders out a welcome to the distinguished visitor from overseas. XXXXX

Monsieur Laval's daughter is in happy mood, and is much impressed by--

--the salute of the fire-floats. XXXX

The Premier is escorted, on the way "up town" by Secretary of State Stimson, and the French Ambassador--

--to the States. XXXXX His first duty is to call upon the Mayor of New York, at the -- --City Hall, before going to Washington to meet Mr. Hoover.

Mr. Stimson and Mayor Walker are glad to welcome Monsieur Laval, and so--

--is quite a big crowd. XXXX It's quite a triumph--

--for the one-time peasant lad. XXXX From labour on a provincial farm, to pilot of a great nation's "ship of state". XXXXXXXX It's a big gulf, but Monsieur Laval bridged it. XXXXX
All honour to him !
