TITLE.:- TIRED TYRES.

Picture.:- Two-and-a-half million tyres ! XXXX Well, that's not--

--bad for a "kick-off". XXXX Somebody suddenly discovered--
--that China could do with all the old tyres she--
--could get, for turning into shoes, etcetera. XXXX

Every youngster for miles around is a "juvenile junk merchant" now ! XXXXX There's lots of fun in collecting--

--them and turning 'em into cash ! XXXX

Hey ! No cheating ! - That's an aeroplane tyre !

I hope none of them are finding them before they're lost!XXX

It looks to me as though spare tyres are a thing of the past in California ! XXXX The youngsters sell them for a few cents apiece to the dealers. XXXX Fathers--

--daren't put their sons off with the old tale about not having--

--any change for their weekly allowance now ! XXXX The kids might "take it out"--

--in tyres off the family car! XXXX That would be extremely awkward, for then poor old Dad would have to retire-the car !
