TITLE :- LORD MAYOR'S SHOW.

Picture :- Make way for London's Lord Mayor, Alderman Sir Maurice Jenks ! XXXX In traditional manner he is going to the Law Courts in--

--his capacity of Chief Magistrate of the City. XXX

We all wish you a very happy year of office,
My Lord Mayor ! XXXX

Mr. and Mrs London and family turn out to see the City's big free show. XXXXX

How everybody thrills as the King's Dragoon Guards swing into the picture at the head of the picturesque pageant of science and industry! XXXX

Of course, London's very own anti-aircraft defence is represented - for where would London be, were it not for them ?

That gun looks as though it could give a good account of itself in case of necessity !

A Veterinary Hostel on wheels portrays the progress made in the treatment of animals, and--

--then come some curious animals such as have never been treated by a "vet" since the world began. XXXX Advance in-- --Radio comes next, with tableaux representing a home of to-day, and an Earth girdled by radio, and another symbolizing the importance of wireless to-day - with emphasis on "British is Best". XXXX

If it were--

--not for the industry here depicted, you wouldn't be there, and I wouldn't be here ! These cars portray the birth of the Cinema, and the various stages of its progress from the old days of the "dumb-ies" to the talkies of to-day ! XXXX
The program promises you a glimpse of a film studio at work - and here it is ! XXXXX Mind you--

MUSIC.
March of Prophets
first in distance,
then closer,
gradually fading
after band shot.

--they've cut down the staff a bit, so as to get them on to this lorry ! XXXX I can assure you there are many more people than this employed in the average studio !XXXX

Now we look back on the Progress of Transport, right away--

--from the old Boneshaker of 1869, through the days of the penny-farthing, to the more modern types of cycles,--

--and thence to motor cars, with Sir Malcolm Campbell's "Bluebird" as the "last word". XXXX

Naturally, "Miss England", the famous racing motor-boat is in the show. A pageant of transport wouldn't be complete without her. XXXXX Another important industry--

--parades itself for our interest - under the title of the "Golden Age of Electricity" !XXXX We couldn't do without it !

And now, ladies and gentleman - the Lord Mayor ! XXXXX What a picture the coach - (sorry, State Chariot, is the correct term) - what a picture it makes, as it turns into Threadneedle Street. XXXX (By the way, in case you didn't know, that's the Bank of England on the right!) XXXXX Thus, London's new Lord Mayor passes--

--for the first time ! XXXX After the show comes a break-down van - just in case of accidents ! XXXXX And now Mr. London is busy making excuses to his wife and youngsters to get back to the office !
