

(5). TITLE:- OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

Picture:- A big and loyal crowd gathers to greet Their Majesties as they leave Buckingham Palace in their "golden coach of state", for the Opening of the New Parliament. XXXX The Royal Progress on such occasions is an impressive link between the Sovereign and his people. XXXX

By the time the cavalcade reaches the vicinity of the Houses of Parliament the weather has turned "typically English" once again, but it does not--

--spoil the splendour of the scene. XXXXX (Thank goodness we're all thoroughly used to ignoring our climate !). XXXX His Majesty is about to--

--inaugurate the most important parliamentary session in the history of our nation. XXXXX (May it put the "old country" on its feet once more !) XXXXX The glittering coach turns into the Royal Entrance below the Victoria Tower, and everybody hopes it heralds--

--a new era of prosperity for Britain and everything British. XXXXXX There never was a cloud without sunshine hidden somewhere about !
