of Technology. -Cambridge U.S.A.-

Picture.:-On the order "Gloves Off !" - the battle is on XXXXX Each man wears one glove - red for one side,-- --and white for the other. XXXX The idea is to capture-- --the gloves of the enemy. XXXXX You'd think it was-- --their trousers they were after ! There's more "rough house"--
--than horse-sense in the battle, but-- --gloves come in to the tub at a rapid rate !
When a fellow loses his "mitt" he's out-- --of the fight. XXXXX Sometimes they "see a few stars" and go "out" still wearing 'em !
More and more are collected by the white-gloved--
--team, as they "gather the Red-- --gauntlets"! XXXX When some of them lose their gloves,you---wouldn't know it until they've washed-- --their hands ! XXXX After a full hour's strenuous battle the white--
--Army puts the Reds to rout with their dimpled knuckles exposed to the chill of the winter's day. Too bad !
