

TINY ACROBATS - Chinese trainer puts his troupe through their paces.

-Hong Kong-

Picture.:- Training elephants isn't easy, but when it comes to mice it's much-- --more difficult. XXXXX Personally I prefer them in in a trap, but--

--the owner of this 'troupe' makes them earn him a living !XXXX
It must have needed a lot of patience to train this fellow to perform his ring 'stunt'. XXXXX Or, maybe it's not so hard--

--if they get their orders in Chinese ! XXXX

He calls this the "Shanghai Derby". XXXXX Looks like a race from anywhere to nowhere !

By way of relaxation, the trainer lets them take a stroll on the roof garden. XXXX I expect they'd just as soon have a bit of cheese! XXXX

Time's up ! Back you come ! XXXX He really wants a "Pied Piper" to call them--

--home. XXXX The audience are not "parting up" very well,--

--so he is going to "pack up" and try the next street !
