

MANY HAPPY RETURNS - King Carol and Prince Michael visit Queen Marie on her birthday. - Rumania-(Exclusive pictures - filmed by Royal Permission).

Picture:- Young Prince Michael and his father King
Carol motor all the way from Bucharest on Queen Marie's 57th birthday. Incidentally Carol is the only king who ever succeeded his-- --son to the throne. These-- --are rare pictures, which allow you, for the first--

--time, to see the Queen Mother, her son, and her grandson,--
--all together. Queen Marie is very popular with the-- --Rumanian peasants whom she often visits and helps them over their troubles. To-- --them she is a friend as well as a Queen, and-- --many of them have travelled on foot for days to wish her--
--a happy birthday and to greet the royal family.

King Carol is very keen on photography and he is--
--teaching it to the-- --Prince who takes pictures of the beautiful--
--waterfalls on his grandmother's-- --estate, of the paths where he-- --learned to toddle,--
--and of the Black Sea where he learned to swim.

Young as he is, he has known real grief. Let's hope the future will erase it!
