TAXI-MEN PREPARE - Drivers of Berlin taxi-cabs

learn the art of self-defence.

-Germany-

Picture: A Berlin taxi-driver's life--

--is not a happy one.

Many have been attacked and robbed by bandits, so the drivers are preparing a few surprises.

The next garotter who pinches a throat before--
--pinching the mark notes may get broken fingers--
--or a packet of marks he can't show at--
--a bank counter.

Lay off, you gun man ! -

-- - Or these fellows--

--will twist you instead.

There's a good gun lost !

They are keen on learning. Two of-- --their colleagues have actually been killed while on duty with their cabs.

This is what will happen in the future !

Drop that revolver, or I'll break your wrist !

Should stop bilking, too !
