

SWIMMING THE SEINE - Fifteen weather-proof swimmers negotiate the chilly waters of the river.

-Paris-

Picture:- Brrh ! - Splash ! In the Summer everybody complained that it wasn't warm enough--

--for bathing ! Now (Splash) that it's freezing cold people--

--do it ! Some are quite content to just watch.

But here it looks as if everybody's doing it. The Seine is a nice river but - well - just fancy you people leaving this nice comfortable cinema, stripping, getting into--

-- (Out of the light please !) a cold unfriendly bathing costume, and then dropping into that ! Maybe they are all going to get medals !

This one is ! He got across first ! He wanted to get home quickest !
