

PLAYGROUND IN THE SNOW - Winter sports enthusiasts find that Scotland provides all the attractions of a Continental holiday.

Picture. :- Oh ! To be in Scotland now that Winter's there ! The pound is worth only 13/- odd in Switzerland,--

--but in Scotland it is still worth 20, so why pay more, as it were.

Out from Taymouth Castle (A most lovely spot by the way) come--

--the visitors and their skis, and their toboggans to enjoy--

--Alpine sports in the Grampians. Stiff work getting up steep slopes, but like--

--mother's advice, it is good--

--for you. Everyone is in appropriate costume, and the Castle might be a beautiful Swiss Chalet, only it's a little more beautiful. (That's--

--in case there are Scots in--

--the audience) Here's a leap and a sharp turn, a difficult feat unless one has--

--experience. This is a laxier idea for the--

--less strenuous. Rather exciting, though, if you loose your balance. Come along, the off side is--

--winning, but who cares ? The real gain is sparkling eyes and ruddy cheeks.

AND SO, FOR THE PRESENT, I LEAVE YOU !
