

DUMB WAITER - NEW STYLE - Successful trial of novel table service in an American restaurant.

-Worcester, U.S.A.-

Picture.:- It looks like man and wife sitting in an ordinary cafe,--

--doesn't it ? Well, it isn't ! I don't mean man and wife ! I mean it isn't--

--an ordinary cafe. There are-- --no waiters. You write your order on a card and drop it in a slot.

Down in the kitchen the chef takes your order.

And now see what happens !

The first course goes on the little dumb waiter, and before you have time to bawl out "Waiter !", presto !

There's your food rising like a fish to the bite. Right up through the table ! Ready for the next course ? Pull a cord, and down she goes !

A really brand new idea ! The only similiarity between this--

--system, and the old one is that you still have to pay your check, - but no tipping, unless you tip your hat--

--to the cashier! "All to your liking, sir ? Gooooood-evening !"
