TO A GREAT MAN - Status of Sir. Ernest Shackleton the Antarctic explorer, unveiled at Kensington.

~~-London-~~

Picture. :- Many other brave men have been honoured by Britain and her people,--

--but none has been more deserving of recognition than Sir Ernest Shackleton. The Marquis of Zetland who arrived--

--to unveil--

--the memorial spoke of Shackleton's powers of leadership, courage and resource. The statue in bronze reveals all the strength-- --and dauntlessness of the Antarctic explorer who risked hardship and death to advance the cause of science and mankind.
