ORPHANS' DAY - President Rubio presides at annual presentation of gifts to orphaned children.

-Mexico-

Picture.:- To-day the orphans of Mexico are in the special care of the nation's president,--

--Signor Rubio. The president sometimes likes a day off for--

--himself. This is it ! And he uses--

--it to give presents to all the parentless kiddies of his country.

After they have sung for their supper as it were--

--serious work begins. Eager little hands reach--

--out and grasp the wonderful toys--

--which will keep them happy for months to come. I believe the President --

--enjoys it as much as the kiddies. Ah ! Lovely ball for someone !

Well he has given joy to lots of little hearts--

--to-day, and that's a big thing to do !!
