

13840-2

. -I-

END OF "THE ROAD" - Animals of the disbanded Bostock's Menagerie on their way to Whipsnade Zoo.

-Dunstable-

Picture. :- This is the last you will see of the famous Bostock and Wombell--

--Menagerie which has toured the country for over one hundred years.

Who's been eating my porridge? - says the blond bear to his Brunette lady friend.

The animals are now pensioned off. No wonder the camel's got the hump.

Their professional days are over. No more blazing lights, and tumultuous applause,--

--but the sky and sun (if any) and a quiet life lived out in the--

--glens of Whipsnade. After a life of work in captivity--

--it will be a severe change for them - I wonder if they will appreciate it.

Anyway, they are so well trained that whatever they think they'll not breathe a word.