

BEAUTY AND BRAINS - Camera interview with Dewet, the £2,000 Alsatian, at Pinefold Kennels, Camberley.

-Surrey-

Picture.:) - This dog trotting between his master and mistress is--

--worth more than two thousand two hundred pounds. Anyway that was the-- --sum of money offered for him and--

--refused. He's an all--

--black alsatian. He also is a patriot you'll--

--notice, and prefers the Union Jack to--

--all others. He can count and select the right ball asked for.

Told to pick a certain article from a--

--number of others, he does so.

Prizes ! He's won scores ! And he's in love too !
Yes, he--

--has even sense enough for that. And look what he woke up--

--to find one morning. There's no doubt that the dog's clever.
