TREASURE SEEKERS- Unemployed reap rich harvest
from holiday-makers' losses.

-Revere.U.S.A.-

Picture:- One day an unemployed man walking along the--

--sands happened to kick up--

--a half crown..

That gave him an idea, so he begged,--

--borrowed, or stole a shovel,--

--and sifter, and with a few pals, began work. Oh look !
It's been a wet day for somebody.

They call it picking up a living. They find--

--all sorts of things. Ah ! That just shows how--

--careless people are with their--

--valuables. It may not tick, but it will go. It's gone !

Are any of these yours ? If so who--

--were you with when you lost 'em ? Ah ha !
