

138255-C

FIRE AT BRIDLINGTON - All that remains of the Royal Hall after disastrous blaze.

-Yorkshire-

Picture:- Any of you know Bridlington ? - The fine Spa Royal Hall, complete with tower and dome - That's all that's left--

--of it ! At 2.30.a.m., a jazz band--

--finished its last foxtrot, and the last dancers went home. At 5 o'clock, flames were seen, and the alarm was-- --given. A few minutes later the whole structure was ablaze. Soon the domed roof fell in with a roar and the column of flame--

K
--rose three hundred feet into a night sky. Then the tower toppled with its large globe, fell to earth, and little was left but broken concrete and twisted steel. Sixty-five thousand pounds damage in two hours ! Hard luck, Brid !