

UP THE POLE ! Pole-squatting surely the craziest craze to invade this country, reaches London.

-Forest Gate-

Picture. (-----LAUGH-----) Of all the - well ! - -

The saxophones were in full blast
As through the skating rink I passed,
And there aloft some guys I saw--

--and Janes perched high above the floor.
Right up the Pole !

I thought squatters were people who squatted in the Australian bush, but--

--these are squatters in Forest Gate.

(LETTER SHOT).

(-----PAUSE-----) Ah ! She doesn't believe it ! She knows the seat is the hardest, poor girl !

It ain't no joke
Squatting on a post,
All by yourself in the limelight.
There ain't no - - - -

For the longest squatters there's a prize. The man gets-- --£10, and the girl £5. Fuzzle why does a girl get less than a man ?

(MOUTH ORGAN ONLY OVER NEXT SHOT).

This stunt is causing quite a sensation ! I should think it would - for the competitors ! It's a far far harder seat than she has ever sat on ! It's a far far worse - cramp - than she has ever known !
