GOD OF CHANCE - Exclusive pictures of the draw for big prizes in Cuban national lottery. Havana-

---

Picture.:- Here are exclusive pictures of how the National Cuban Lottery is carried out. One box contains balls bearing the numbers--

--sold. In the other are prizes. These necklaces are more valuable than--

--pearl ones. The strings are-- --cut, and the balls--

--fall into a complicated sort of--

--washing machine that doesn't wash. But it does a good turn--

--for someone, and at last turns--

--out a ball worth one hundred-- --and fifty--

--thousand dollars. A boy does the-- --drawing and reads out the winner's name and the lucky number is recorded by the officials. Then--

--the fun starts. The prize winner has to stand treat to--

--a few thousand suddenly found friends, and if there is--

--any prize left after settling the bill, well - he is lucky !
