

C-42851

-H-

THE KHAKI PATROL + Men of the A.A. prepare for another day on duty as "samaritans of the road."

Camden Town-

---

Picture.:- Years ago a bright individual saw a car stranded by the--

--roadside. It wouldn't go forward ! It wouldn't go backward ! In fact it wouldn't-

--go nohow ! And it's owner was extremely annoyed, but the small circumstance caused the birth of a great idea.

There are now thousands of uniformed clad knights of the--

--road who protect motorists from hold-ups and--

--breakdowns. They have become a disciplined force of road patrols who cover over--

--27 million miles of highways every year. They are equipped and competent to deal with practically any emergency. every day with one exception--

--Christmas Day they are awheel ! A service which "lives to look for--

--trouble". They take the salt sea flavour of "Aye, aye", sir !"