ACADEMIC PROCESSION - Many leaders of Scottish education attend service in commemoration of University College jubilee.

-Dundee-

Picture.:- Dundee possesses something even more notable than marmalade factories. To-day it celebrates the Jubilee of its University College. The academic procession is headed by Sir James Irvine, the college vice-chancellor,

He is followed by the Earl of Strathmore, Lord Sanis, and many other leaders of Scottish academic and educational life. The procession is now entering St. Mary's-- --Church for the commemoration service. After this the graduation ceremony--

--will be held in the Caird Hall. On this occasion the Earl of Strathmore's daughter--

--Lady Rose Levenson Gower is one of the graduates.
