

VANITY OF THE MALE - Stalwart specimens of manhood oust mannequins from dress parade at Miami Beach.

-U.S.A.-

Picture:- Just have a look at a new profession for men !

The male mannequin takes his rightful place at the Florida Fashion Show. Here he glides glorifying in his manly figure, and the latest sea-shore suits.
What do you think of that, girls ! Now don't tell him, tell me !

Combinations of colour will be much worn by both sexes this year. Seems fair enough to me.

Coats and trousers will also be worn by the best people and straw boaters--

--will be just as popular as ever for running after in a high wind. A suit--

--for every day in the week shows good taste. I'm wearing mine now !
