

LIGHT BLUES AT GORING - Cine portraits of Cambridge Boat Race Crew ready for strict training on the Thames.

Picture.:- The Cambridge Boat is having bad luck with its crew. Several good men are ill,--

--or like Sergil recovering. Haig Thomas looks healthy enough.

Sambell and Luxton are keeping fit and doing good work.

Like Asquith and Payne, Best the stroke dropped out with 'flu,--

--and Barrington, left of Rickett will stand down when Sergil and Best return. Bevington and McCowan look as if they hate being photographed,--

--and Rankin the Cox is itching to get some work done !

He's got his wish and the Boat drill commences at Goring-on-Thames. Final positions are not yet decided but the Light Blues have no intention of--

--adopting the "wait and see" policy, and each man trains his hardest.

Wat did you say,--

--who's going to win. Vell, wait and see !
