HONEYMOON CARAVAN - Bride and bridegroom solve the housing problem in novel manner.

-France-

Picture.:- To the sound of wedding bells this couple make their way towards their very own house which-- --waits them on the street kerb. This is going to be a crowded honeymoon. They must-- --be very close friends. Anyway they get off,--

--(of course the bride got off before this) - and get off again at a cheery spot--

--where they stop to cheer-- --everybody up. I don't know if anyone sang "Where my Caravan has rested", but the happy-- --couple now get the whole house to themselves. O.K.

with you !
