

"TO THOSE WHO PASSED ON" - Germany pays tribute to the memory of those who fell in the Great War.

Picture.:- Germany mourns her dead on the peoples' day-- --of remembrance. The Regimental standards of the Fatherland's army are solemnly carried from the great Hall of the-- --Reichstag. The roll of muffled drums and the-- --dirge of slow marches to the fallen raises high the emotions of the-- --German people. Marshal Hindenberg, the much loved President of the new--

--Republic passes down the ranks of those who fought in the European Armageddon.

Like all those countries who suffered so sorely, Germany--

--cannot forget her dead.

BAND UP.

In the years which have followed--

--the War Marshal Hindenburg has proved an affectionate--

--statesman to the country he loves so well.
