

BEAUTIFUL BEASTS - Splendid animals compete for coveted prizes at Glasgow Stallion Show.

-Scotland-

Picture. :- Fine horses still prove a great attraction, and the bright sunshine makes the well-groomed beasts glisten like--

--satin. This one has its permanent waves disentangled, and a slight manicure; --

--an aristocrat who is followed about by a couple of valets. Don't ever call a lady vain after seeing this gentleman's toilet.

This show of stallions at Glasgow is well attended by--

--admirers of these splendid but rather large looking animals.

I hope this great fellow is stopped before he charges into the camera !

Craigie Cameronian, owned by James Kilpatrick, wins the--

--Meiklan Gold Cup, worth £250.

No need to tell that horsie to keep his tail up !
