GREAT BAR RALLY - Start and finish of biggest British motoring event in history.
-London, Buxton, and Torquay-

Picture.: - 'The more we are together, the happier we will be'.

Sorry ! I didn't know the microphone was switched on !

Ah ! She's just come from Bath. Anyway, that's the-- --ditty of the thousand odd cars and their occupants--
--who are starting a 1000 miles run to Torquay.

This is the starting point of the rally in--
--London, but cars are coming from nine different places.

Here is the Buxton rallying point. They're filling hot water--

--bottles. It's cold ! Even the radiators have got their overcoats on !

Cars have come here via London and Edinburgh. Seven-- --hundred and fifty miles. The men--
--look tired, but most of the women--
--look as fresh as point. That's meant kindly,-- --ladies ! Progress has been good, generally ! Although-- --one man who ran out of petrol is said--
--to have filled up with whiskey. That's the spirit.
Torquay was the--

--objective, and here are the first pair to reach it.

There were sixty women drivers. I understand they did well, keeping-- close to the men and--

--maintaining the pace. This lady was the first to finish !

Some 2,000 drivers and passengers passed--

--the home tape. Terquay hotels think the motor rally is a good idea !
