-Cincinnati, U.S.A.-

Picture. :- This Leap Year bride and groom are proving that the course of true love can sometimes run smooth. They have decided to skate through life together, starting at the rink where they first--

--fell for each other. Well, it's novel if its--

--nothing else ! Even the minister is on wheels as he--

--makes the two loving hearts--

--skate as one. I hope they don't slip now !

The knot's tied, and immediately good things start showering down on the wedded pair. Well, happy days !

Oh ! Dont' interrupt !

Ah ! Well, brides will be brides, and grooms--

--will be grooms, and skates will be skates !
