MOTHERING SUNDAY - "Our Youngest People" takes their mothers to church for special service.

-Southwark, London-

Picture:- One hundred and twenty or so years ago, the Little Dorrit of Charles--

--Dickens made this Church immortal. To-day come Little Dorrits--

--in their hundreds to attend divine service on Mothering Day. Such a service--

--to which children under two years may bring their parents--

--would have instantly appealed to the great humanity of--

--Dickens himself. The Reverend A. Barker could easily preach of miracles.

There were three hundred in front of him.
