visit the Aintree Course to view the famous
"jumps".

Picture:- Here are a few of the two hundred and fifty thousand people who visited Aintree on Jumping Sunday to see the grave of their--

--hopes in the Grand National. A few may make money --

--on the race, but

--most of those will be bookies ! Bechers' Brook will upset a few jumpers and a whole lot of backers !

This tipster will tell you exactly what you should put your money on ! "I've got a hoss - for sixpence !"

Cheap ! Isn't it ? Probably all it's worth !
But if you, like all these people would like to know the name of the winner, I'll tell you - - next Friday !
