

THE LINDBERGH BABY - Exclusive pictures of the most sought-after baby in the world.

U.S.A.--

---

Picture.:- The nervous tension of this house is surely unequalled by any other--

--home in the world. An adored baby boy kidnapped from his own nursery and whisked off into a mysterious void, peopled by unfeeling gangsters and racketeers, is the crime, diabolical in its fiendishness. It is-- --the work of those whose feelings of humanity are either still-born or dead. The anguish of the father and mother must be indescribable. Betty Gow-- --responsible nurse is distraught, and who can say what suffering the baby is undergoing. In the name of sacred motherhood, these vilest of criminals should be brought to the bear of civilized and unrelentless justice.
