

DUKE OF YORK IN WEST RIDING - His Royal

Highness spends a busy day in Huddersfield.

-Yorkshire-

---

Picture.:- The Huddersfield Old Contemptibles all receive a hand-shake from the Duke of York--

--when he visits the local war memorial--

--to present the old warriors with a new standard. Members of the Contemptibles from surrounding districts attend--

--the ceremony and march past His Highness, who is accompanied by Brigadier General R.E. Sugden. The royal--

--visitor chatted with Earnest Sykes, the railway guard V.C.

The Huddersfield Royal Infirmary is the next call, where--

--a nurses' guard of honour welcomes the Duke. Attended by the Hospital President--

--the Bishop of Wakefield and others, he lays the foundation stone of the new Hospital building--

--which bears an inscription commemorating his visit. After congratulating the--

--staff on the excellence of their work, the Duke takes his leave having ended another busy day !
