Y. Bwthyn Bach - "The Little Cottage" - The Duke and Duchess of York receive gift from the Welsh people to Princess Elizabeth.

-Cardiff-

Picture:- The Cardiff visit of the Duke and Duchess of York gives--

--Wales its chance to show the affection it has for the Royal house.

At the Cardiff Infirmary, the Duchess unveils a tablet over the Princess Elizabeth cot--

--which has been endowed by proceeds from the exhibition of

--the Little Cottage. This perfect play-thing is Cardiff's gift to the "Little Princess", --

--and is handed over to her Royal parents by the--

--Lord Mayor. It is eleven feet high, with-- --a living room and kitchen on the ground-floor and--

--bed-room and bath-room upstairs. Hot and cold water, and telephone! All that--

--real fairies could offer a real princess. The Duchess--

--said she would love to play in it--

--herself. Maybe she will if she has time!
