

C-12851

"ARMY" AT THE PALACE - Salvation Army band gives recital in presence of Buckingham Palace.

-London-

Picture.:- When General Booth founded the Salvation Army Regent Hall band, I doubt if he ever thought it would ever play before the Royal Family at Buckingham Palace. Yet, it is now doing so for the-- --fourth time.

BAND UP OVER THREE SHOTS.

After the performance Band-Master Twichem was received and congratulated by Their Majesties the King and Queen. The band played "Jesu Lover of My Soul" at the Queen's special request.