VAN HORSE PARADE - Annual gathering in Regent's Park demonstrates continued popularity of "the noble animal.

-London-

Picture. :- London's van horses are dressed in their best to-day for their--

--24th annual parade at Regents Park. Major Sir--

--William Ackland judges the entries. That's a nice little fellow !

The march-past of the winners ! London's Lady Mayoress presents prizes to the lucky ones ! There were 620 entries. More cart horses than you'll ever again see on any street at one time. Sad, but true !

There's a smart turn out receiving its honourable reward ! Whoa, mare ! She's overcome with the joys of Spring !

But this is a passing show ! It's a shame old Hoss !

You're fine looking, but too slow for this fast old world !
