EGG ROLLING - Despite inclement weather youngsters indulge in ancient custom at Preston.

-Lancashire-

Picture.:- This is where you really see lots of hard-boiled ones - er - eggs I mean ! To Preston Park come children in their hundreds to roll Easter eggs. If it-- --wasn't so darned wet, I could say thousands.

Don't ask me why they do this !

It's one of these old customs which nobody seems to-- --know anything about ! But if the kiddies like it,--

--well let's keep ^{on} rolling them ! Some of those eggs never heard a hen cluck ! The kids like-- --them better than the real ones They can eat the shells as well !
