

2-282851

CHANGING THE GUARD - Picturesque ceremony at St. James's Palace delights Londoners and visitors alike.

-London-

Picture.

- 1st Shot. (18 ft). BAND - ORDINARY TIME MARCH.
- 2nd Shot. (11 ft). SLOW MARCH DISTANT EFFECT. ('Present Arms' command
The Grenadiers are relieving the Irish Guards.
This is the oldest and most picturesque military ceremony in the world !
- 3rd Shot. (9 ft). In olden days the Palace keys were handed over.
Now the officers merely touch hands.
- 4th Shot. (7 ft). (BAND).
The new Guard moves away !
- 5th Shot. (8 ft). Relieving sentries replace the retiring ones !
BAND IN DISTANCE.
- 6th Shot. (11 ft). (STILL DISTANT BAND - SLOW MARCH).
All round the Palace the new Guard takes over from the old Guard.
- 7th Shot. (6 ft). Each day this happens the new Guard swears loyalty to the--
- 8th Shot. (6 ft). --throne and pledges itself to protect--
- 9th Shot. (14 ft). --the persons of the reigning monarch and (BAND UP SLOW MARCH.) members of the Royal House.
- 10th Shot. (6 ft). SLOW MARCH.
- 11th Shot. (16 ft). SLOW MARCH.