

ST. PAUL'S WEDDING - Mr. R. A. Jenks, son of the Lord Mayor, weds Miss Marjorie du Cros at the national cathedral.

-London-

Picture.:- Huge crowds assemble outside St. Paul's for the marriage of Miss Marjorie du Cros to Mr.
Atherley--

--Jenks, the eldest son of London's Lord Mayor.
The--

--bride looks charming and happy as she goes up--

--the steps of the Cathedral where a Guard of-- --Honour of Special Constables is drawn up. Fifteen--

--thousand have accepted invitations to be present,--

--but thousands more have turned up to add their--

--wishes for the happiness of the bride and bridegroom.
The bridesmaids are-- --colourfully dressed in royal blue. Four tiny tots hold the bride's train as she descends--

--with her husband to the State Coach which-- --is to carry them to the reception at the Mansion House.

All blessings attend them !
