SURPRISE FOR CARNERA - The Italian giant fails to knock out Don McCorkindale in 10-round contest at Royal Albert Hall.

-London-

Picture.:- The start of the titanic fight between Carnera, the Italian giant, and McCorkindale. The Albert Hall is packed to see this event.

Carnera looks tremendous against his opponent,--
--but it isn't size which counts, it's punching power !

McCorkindale is fighting well and pluckily, and lands a terrific left hook. Carnera replies by knocking him down !

There's no question of a count. Both men are doing some fast--

--hitting, but Carnera hardly seems to be going--

--"all-out". Some in fighting ! A few nasty upper cuts which connect, and the ref separates them.

There's no doubt that Carnera is-- --the ring master, despite MacCorkindale's fine showing. He's not fighting as hard as I've seen-- --him do. Mac gets home some stinging blows, but the Italian is still calm and unfuffled and wins--

--the fight by points. When Carnera shook my hand some time ago, he nearly shook me off my ^{feet} fight. He's great.
