LONDON TO BRIGHTON RELAY RACE - Twenty clubs (of 10 runners each) in annual "rush to the coast".

Runners in the London-Brighton relay race shake hands with the Lord Mayor, who hands over a letter as relay baton addressed to the Lord Mayor of Brighton. Away go the runners to deliver it at top foot speed. Twenty clubs are represented, each by ten runners

Holden of Tipton leads at the Mitcham change-over, with Dougall of Birchfield Harriers second and Thomas of Cwmbrian ( that's Welsh) third at the third relay point, Purley, Ferryman of Bitchfield Harriers hands over to Quinn, Wales is coming up now. Palmer of Cwmbrian hands over to Thomas. That's Thomas the second of course.

Evanson of Salford finishes first and delivers the letter to Brighton's Lord Mayor. Bourton leading Birchfield Harriers for second place congratulates him What a postman he'd make.
