"PLAYING AT SOLDIERS" - Planning, in miniature, the mighty spectacles of the great military pageant - - the Aldershot Tattoo.

-Hampshire-

Picture:- Toy soldiers, forts, guns, and what not, in thousands ! Wouldn't that small son, or brother-- --of yours like to be let loose amongst all--

--this ? These miniature models and plans are the basis--

--of the inspiring spectacle of empire which is annually presented as the--

--Aldershot Tattoo. Major-General Evans inspects the projected ideas.

That set will be the Battle of Inkerman when it is brought--

--to life ! The sort of show which should teach us to think imperially !
