WHITE PILGRIMS - Penitents from a wide area assemble for Jubilee of Our Lady of Puy.

-France-

Picture:- This colossal figure of the Virgin Mary is fifty-three feet--

--high, and stands two thousand feet above the plains.

Under its beneficent shadow lies the tiny town of-- --Puy, which to-day holds a jubilee fete of-- --thanks for her protection. The White Pilgrims, who live-- --in this district, gather to visit the 7th century-- --cathedral for special devotional services. This sacred figure--
--is cast from bronze cannon captured-- --at Sevastopol. In the procession the Miraculous Virgin-- --is carried, followed by Cardinal Verdier, Archbishop of Paris, the Bishop of Puy, and all the Bishops of France.
Such a fete as this will not--
--be held at Puy for at least another seventy-- --three years. From the altar in the-- --Grande Place, Cardinal Verdier blesses the Penitents and the populace.
