

CANINE CHAMPIONS - Peers of the dog world at Kensington Society's Show, Crystal Palace.

-London-

Picture.:- All the dog dudes are getting dolled up for the--

--Kensington Canine Society's one day championship show.
Here--

--they are at the Crystal Palace, all sitting pretty before trotting into the show ring to exhibit their good--

--points. Popular sealyhams are put through their paces
in front of the Judges.

Borzoi are prominent, and these fine specimens give the judges something to puzzle over !

There's a winning beauty ! Oh ! a lovely - er - dog !

A Great Dane, with his Indian mistress !

Guardians of the Prince of Wales, these beautiful Alsations are His Highness's contribution to the three thousand, five hundred-- --and twenty six entries.. A miniature petted poodle !

A winning samoyede "Arctic Dawn".

Rather unusual this ! A lady with a becoming beard !

Now for lunch ! And this is what is called leading a dog's life!What a life !
