

2-155851

WEDDING OF KING'S GODSON.

A wedding is always an attraction and this one much more so.
Miss Marion Glyn-----

----- is to wed Lord Hyde, the King's godson; and their Majesties are to be----- -----present. Hundreds of City girls -- and men--<sup>go</sup> went without lunch to get a glimpse of this favoured bride at Westminster Abbey-----

----- Her appearance in a cloth of ---

-----gold gown caused a gasp of admiration-----

-----Their Majesties the King and Queen look very happy over the event. This is one of ----- ----- the King's few outside social engagements of the past six months or so. Everyone is glad to see their Majesties looking so well-----

-----The happy pair arrive at St James's place for the reception -- another ordeal before leaving----- -----for their honeymoon-- then- happiness and long life to them.

-----