HEROES OF THE DEEP - Gallant lifeboatmen meet to receive awards for brave deeds in time of peril.

-London-

Picture.:- May I, with Lieutenant-Colonel Satterthwaite, C.B.E., Secretary of the Royal Lifeboat Institution, introduce--

--Coxwain John Campbell of Port Patrick, who last January rescued eight wrecked men from a raging sea.

Mr. William Sutherland, Secretary of the Lifeboat Station at Longhope, receives a barometer for directing rescue operations--

--from the shore when Coxwain Swanson of Orkney rescued a whole crew after their vessel had foundered.

And by these tokens shall their heroism be known and remembered !
