IDOL OF THE ALPINI - 50,000 alpine war veterans assemble to pay homage to their beloved Crown Prince.

-Italy-

Picture:- The gallant Alpini, whose deeds of valour are almost fabulous, venture down from their mountainous homes and--

--gather in Naples. They come to pay homage to the Crown-- --Prince. Fifty thousand of these defenders of Savoy's Alpine Border assemble before the Royal Palace.

There they re-inact High Mass as they did during-- --the Great War before marching into action. Soon the solitary-- --snows will again take the imprints of their feet, and this day will be a fairy story for the children at bedtime.
