KING AND QUEEN WITH THE ARMY - Their Majesties spend an interesting morning with troops of the Aldershot Command.

-Hampshire-

Picture.:- His Majesty the King, accompanied by the Queen and Princess Royal, spends a busy morning with-- --the mechanized units of his army. Brigadier-General Thomas escorts Their Majesties--
--on the tour of inspection. Anti-aircraft guns of-- --the latest type are operated against aeroplanes manoeuvring overhead. The King's interest in these modern developments is very real.

This searchlight design causes many points to be raised by the Royal visitors. All this takes place at Barbados Square.

The visit is not unusual, as His Majesty has always kept himself au fait with the progress of field equipment.

At Gibraltar Square, the Royal Engineers give a display of bridge building.

The lightning speed of the men and the efficiency--
--of the gear are amply demonstrated.

Wippet tanks are lined up on parade as if they had a job of work to go to, but thanks be, peace is in the land, and long may it continue--

--is the wish of His Majesty the King.
