

138533-C

THE BOYS COME HOME - The 1st Battn. Royal Welch Fusiliers arrive at Southampton after 10 years service overseas.

-Hampshire-

Picture:- Another reminder that Britain has an Empire !
Also--

--a reminder that to join the army means--
--to see the world. The First Battalion Royal Welch--
--Fusiliers arrive in England after 18 year's service overseas.

Oh ! Listen to the Band ! This is a quiet moment in their lives !

Plain Tommy awai+ brings his kit ashore. That crane nearly gave him a lift. Never mind ! It's nearly the last lap ! The next will be the wife !

Drum Major Bacon has been eighteen years in Khartoum !

The regimental mascot born in India, so the poor beast--

--will get three months furlough in quarantine !
Hard luck Billy !

The Colours which have flown under many skies and under which His--

--Majesty serves as Colonel in Chief. In-- --a Wireless greeting the King said "I wish all ranks a happy return to their homes and families. That's a wish which will come true !