STUDENTS' CIRCUS - Edinburgh University students make a great effort to raise £10,000 during Charities Week.

-Scotland-

Picture:- It's Charity Week in Edinburgh, and the students are awfully pleased about it. For a change from the usual ordinary processions they--

--organize a circus. A beautiful -- hmn ! -- tight-rope walker does her stuff on a specially made -- er -- rope !
They get money for this, but not for themselves ! What a girl !

These legs belong to clever dancing students -- er -- of both sexes -- Well, why not ! It's all--

--for the good of the cause ! Who wouldn't be a student on-- --days like this. A crowd cheerfully pays--

--up for -- oh ! -- a bull fight ! And what a bull !
They ought to get money for this ! Torreador business is hot stork ! They-- --are now leading the bull to be filleted.

Every house is cheerfully canvassed by these workers in the cause of sweet charity. Ten thousand pounds are hoped for from this valiant effort ! The hospitals will get a fat cheque anyway !
